

Manti LDS Temple

(1997-1998)

Manti, Utah. Reconstruct exact replica of original stone retaining wall at the east end of the temple, using MSE (Welded Wire Wall, by Hilfiker Retaining Walls of Eureka, CA) with Stone Fascia. This project also included opening up the entire east end of the temple for water-proofing, while supporting the original sandstone walkways overhead in a forty-foot cut.